

10% Payment to City

Can a utility bill customers an additional 10% to go into the cities' general fund? Is this a tax or a cost of service? Should the city be required to provide some sort of support and justification for these payments?